VOLUME V—NUMBER 36 | LAKESIDE, SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA | FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1941

DRAMATISTS TO PRESENT "WHOA GRANDMA"

ROAD WORK WILL START

Grading and oiling of Oak Dr. Manzanita Ave. Vista Rd. and El Monte Rd. was ordered at a meeting of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors last Monday. Supervisor Dean Howell, who was a visitor at the Farmer office yesterday, stated that this action had been taken.

Residents of Lakeside Farms and the El Monte district will be glad, indeed, to hear this news. The condition of the streets named have been very bad for several months.

Work is expected to start immediately, weather permitting, says Supervisor Howell.

Fine Program Aids Success of Dance

That the Home Defense Dance and Program, held at the Recreation Center last Friday, was an outstanding success was proved by the large crowd who attended and thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Henry Worsham and Edna Frank, Works Administration Recreation Leaders, wish to thank the performers who contributed to the success of the evening. Those who participated in the splendid program were:

Leland Barker, harmonica soloist; Charles Estrada tap dancer; Roy Cooper, guitarist; and Helen Arthur, Beverly Hartley, Edue Lou Gates, and Joan Clymer, who entertained in the Minstrel Show, the United States' Black Out.

DEWEY BUCKELS ARE HOSTS AT DINNER

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Buckel, and family on Sunday, February 23, were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carter of San Bernardino, mother and father of Mrs. Buckel, Mr and Mrs. C. V. Carter and son of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Henderson and two children of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Murphy and daughters of El Centro, and Mrs. R. W. Switzer of San Bernardino. Mr. and Mrs. George Bauer and son Jack of Lakeside joined the group in the afternoon.

Drivers who live to see 80, never look for it on their speedometers.

HI THERE, PAISANO!

—C.N.P.A. Service

Everybody is a fellow countryman to his neighbor in San Bernardino these days. They're "prepping" for the National Orange Show which opens March 13th to 23rd with "Days of the Dons" as the theme, hence the Spanish influence in the attire of blond Nancy Brinkman — a favorite contender for the title of Sun Princess to rule over the annual citrus exposition. Though a blonde, the young lady is actually a descendant of the Dons.

Guernseys Are Sold To Buckel & Sons

The American Guernsey Cattle Club, Peterborough, N. H. reports the sale of four registered Guernsey cows by W. B. Havekorst to Dewey W. Buckel and Sons of Lakeside. These animals are Havekorst Playmate 498375 Havekorst Lois Mae 637835, Havekorst Iota Lady 517879 and Havekorst Play Girl 562338.

The Buckel's also purchased twelve registered Guernsey cows from A. G. McIntosh.

DAY OF PRAYER AT EL CAJON CHURCH

Rev. Thomas I. Nalbach, pastor of Lakeside Community Church, announces that there will be a World Day of Prayer meeting today, Friday at the Community Church in El Cajon Box lunch at noon, with coffee provided. Everyone is invited to join this circle of prayer around the world.

4-H CLUBERS JOIN IN MEET

"4-H Club members from all San Diego County will meet in San Diego Saturday, March 1st, to enjoy their first big outing of 1941," declares F. W. Dorman, Assistant Farm Advisor in San Diego County. "'Over 150 4-H Club boys and girls will meet at the Pacific Skating Rink at 10:00 a.m. to enjoy two hours of spills and thrills."

Picnic lunches will be eaten in Balboa Park followed by two hours of recreation in the Hall of Education. The WPA Choral Group will give a short program of popular music. Selected movies will complete

Natural History Walk Tomorrow

Clinton G. Abbott, director of the Natural History Museum, Balboa Park, San Diego announces an interesting walk for Saturday March 1. The leader will be Frank F. Gander of Lakeside. The announcement says:

"Birds of the Ocean Beach." Inhabitants of sea beach and adjacent waters, many of them migrants from a long distance, which at this season may be found on San Diego's waterfronts. The party will meet at the south end of Mission Bay bridge at 9:45 and will end at noon. To reach the meeting place, take Bus R, leaving Fourth and Plaza at 9:16.

Woodman Supper Honors C. H. Foster

Lakeside Modern Woodmen will hold their regular monthly meeting, March 3, at 7:00 o'clock in the Recreation Hall. A pot luck supper will open the evening and will be followed by a dance.

This month's supper and dance are a special occasion, for they will honor Charlie Foster, who will leave his Lakeside friends sometime in March. Lakersiders are urged to come out and "give Charlie a big time."

The committee in charge of this month's meeting, Mrs. I. C. Cooper, Mrs. D. W. Buckel, and Mrs. Art Foster, extend a welcome to everyone.

San Diegans Attend Townsend Meeting

Townsend Club No. 2 held their last meeting on Saturday evening, Feb. 22 with a good attendance. Weber's Orchestra furnished the music.

There were several from San Diego in attendance. Dinner was served and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be held at Civic Center tomorrow night at 7 o'clock, followed by the Harvey Entertainers.

Pot luck supper and dancing will take place immediately after the entertainment. Ladies are requested to bring a covered dish and their own service. All are invited to attend our meetings.

WILL BENEFIT LOCAL P.-T A.

"Whoa Grandma," a hilarious three act comedy, will be presented by the Adult Drama Class under the direction of Ruby Kisman Hays. The performance will start at 8:00 o'clock tonight, Friday, Feb. 28 in the Lakeside Grammar School auditorium, as a benefit for the P. T. A. It is hoped that everyone in Lakeside will be present.

Those who attend will not only enjoy an evening chock full of laughs, they will also be assisting the P. T. A. in carrying on a worthwhile welfare program.

Did you know that with only a membership of 76 the P. T. A. has given $61.88 worth of clothing to needy families in Lakeside since last September, has spent $6.80 for lunches for children, given $5.00 to the Red Cross, $2.50 to the Community Chest and $8.85 for student recreation? Let's get together and make this a real community affair. Everybody attend!

The cast of characters includes: Mrs. Kingston, grandma Ruby Nelson; Bart Kingston, the grandson, Bill Bledsoe; Evelyn Leighton, a "deb," Pat Huffman; Claire Kingston, the elder granddaughter, Florine Buckel; Carol Kingston, the younger granddaughter, Hazel Foster; Mr. Hargreaves, the family lawyer, James Ballou; Madam Emmy, a costume designer, Dessie La Course; Gloria Day, a chorus girl, Cleo Tehan; Jack Raymond a college boy, James Nelson; Julia, the maid, Dorothy Morton; Trevett, the butler, Harry Hays; Ronald Delmar, a rich young man, Earl Barker.

RABBIT BREEDERS WILL HOLD TABLE SHOW

San Diego County Rabbit Breeders Association will hold a Table Show, March 9th., at the Del Mar Fair Grounds.

Pot luck dinner will be had at noon and the Association will furnish coffee cream and sugar.

This show is a preliminary to the big Spring show, to be held on April 12 and 13. It is known as the Easter Show for which the San Diego Club has been sponsors for several years.

All classes and breeds of rabbits will be exhibited and rabbit raisers and breeders are invited to attend both shows and exhibit their stock.

Local Boy Was Named 4-H Club County All Star Along With San Marcos Girl

Robert Buckel of the Lakeside Club and Ellen Jones of the San Marcos 4-H Club were named San Diego County 4-H All Stars by a committee of 4-H Club leaders consisting of Mrs. Norton, Lakeside, Mrs Sawyer, Spring Valley and C. C. Cooper, El Cajon.

Others who scored high in all star competition were Martha Williamson of Alpine, Lola Garner of Hillsdale and Lucille Smith of Valley Center

Robert Buckel is a fifth year member from Lakeside, having transferred from Imperial Valley three years ago. Last year Robert was president of his 4-H Club and carried a large dairy project.

"Farm Bureau centers and Farm Home Departments are contributing toward a fund to send these two outstanding 4-H Club members to the state 4-H All Star conference at Berkeley, April 7 to 10th inclusive," according to F. W Dorman assistant farm advisor in San Diego County.

Poultrymen To Meet At Grossmont High And Learn Of Account-keeping On Farms

James Lyon, chairman of the San Diego Poultry Department of the Farm Bureau, announces two meetings to be held in the county and which will be of interest to all poultrymen. The first meeting will be held at the Agricultural Hall, Grossmont Union High School, March 4, at 7:30 p.m., and the second at the Escondido Valley Poultry Association Mill Escondido, March 5, at 2:00 p.m. Jean C. Miller, assistant farm advisor, will discuss the subject of keeping farm accounts and records necessary for income tax reports.

The University of California Agricultural Extension Service is giving attention to the subject of account keeping on farms, Mr. Miller stated, and a new farm account book has been prepared by the department of economics for farm use. Miller stated that an explanation of the use of this book will constitute the basis of his talk at these meetings.

THE HANDS OF SPRING

There is a soft compulsion in the hands
Of spring. Her gently urgent touch is laid
Upon the earth and nothing quite withstands
Her wish to see all living things arrayed
In loveliness. Even the stern dark trees
That all the winter winds have not swept bare
Lift up their arms that vanquished enemies
To lay fresh garlands in their proud torn hair.

And down in our dark human depths some seed
Of love or life or beauty that has lain
In long and patient waiting now is freed
At last from its chill bonds to stir again,
And the hand of spring upon us makes bold
To lift into the light the good we hold.

Ronald English Hartley,
in the Christian Science Monitor.

SIGNS OF SPRING

Even though annoying rains will not admit it, many welcome signs are promising the approach of Spring. The peach tree belonging to George Gibson has already donned a gown of pale pink, while our umbrella tree boasts a score of tiny buds. Beautiful yellow veils adorn the acacia of Mrs. Mae Offord and Rev. Nalbach. Judy Van der Veer describes these signs of spring in a delightful article, "Early Awakening," which appeared in the Christian Science Monitor. She says, in part:

"Of course, the calendar does not admit that it is spring. In northern lands, snow has buried the earth. Even here we shall listen to cold rains whipping against the house and torrents foaming down the canyons; we shall wake some mornings to see the heads of mountains shining with snow, to see frost on our fields. But, if spring is a time when new grass grows, when shrubs begin to blossom, and little sharp pointed things push up from bulbs—then, who can deny that this is spring? If spring is a time of frisking goats and frolicsome lambs, of new calves asleep in the grass, of colts capering on tiny hoofs—then it is spring on our ranch. City people may be unaware of the season; but here, where there are broad fields and high pastures and the sounds, sights, and smells of life astir, one knows that the magic time is starting."

While watching three of the Lucas' Karakuls break through their fence into what looked like greener pastures, we were reminded of Judy's description of her contest with a bull:

". . . it is a cause for thankfulness that rains have so softened the earth that fence-posts lean, that Benjamin, the bull, gives a little push and rods of fence collapse . . . because then I can no longer put off the repairing of weak spots in the fences. . . . ."

"The best fun about repairing fence is to watch Benjamin come marching along, intent on breaking through his favorite weak spot. If the fence dosen't give, I am triumphant. Benjamin feels frustrated. Finally he wanders mournfully along the fence, muttering what must be curses on my head. . . . And I feel proud as a turkey gobbler, the way a person feels when he has accomplished something worth while."

ITALIA, O ITALIA

A news item says that Italy, whose struggle for freeddom from the Austrian (now German) yoke so greatly aided by Englishmen and who was an ally of Great Britain and France in the World War, is sending aviators and planes, submarines and crews to help in the German attack on the British Isle. Wonder if Mussolini, the ex-newspaperman, is acquainted with the works of that famous compatriot, Giacomi Leopardi, who once wrote:

O Italy. Noise of arms I hear,
In foreign lands thy sons are combatting;
Attend, O Italy, I see afar
Whirling of smoke, a flash of blades.
Ye gods, for alien lands Italian steel
What moves thy youth to fight upon those fields?
Ye Gods, for alien lands Italian steel
Is bared. Unhappy he who fighting falls,
Not for his native shores and children dear,
But for the stranger, slain by others' foe,
And dying cannnot say; O sacred soil,
I give thee back the life thou gavest me.

MARS, THE RAINMAKER

Weeping skies have given California such a continuous drenching for weeks and months past that ducks have started quacking hoarsely in protest; Methodists, publicly immersed, have rushed blindly into Baptist churches—and suspicious business men have wired their congressmen to stop the New Deal from tinkering with the weather.

In short, it's been a very wet Winter!

It was only natural, perhaps, that the two big topics of the hour—war and the weather—should be linked together. At any rate, there are certain scientists and many good conversationlists who are contending that Mars is the real rainmaker; that the terrific and constant bombardment of men at war has literally shaken the heavens and brought down unseasonable torrents from above.

We have no profound opinion to venture on this interesting theory, although the whole subject was debated for months on end during the first World War and many learned gentlemen have argued it pro and con during the years intervening. Certain it is, however, that Mars has put nearly everything else out of kilter in this strife worn world. And it isn't at all impossible to picture the heavens weeping as they contemplate the tragedy and chaos in the world below. That interpretation we realize, isn't a bit scientific, but neither is it irrational.

The rains, though, will probably soon be over and most of us will forget that we got almost web footed during the Winter. Already you may hear your neighbor muttering, 'Spring can't be far behind!' And that fundamental law, fortunately, may apply to other things than the weather.

HITLER'S MOLARS

Historians have long since disclosed that the real reason George Washington looked so grim and uncompromising was that his dental plates fitted badly and gave him more trouble than all he "red coats" sent over to plague his armies. As a consequence, all the pictures of the Father of His Country show him with his jaws clamped together like he was just about to cross the Delaware under heavy shell fire, whereas actually — if the historians are to be believed—he was simply sore as hell about the condition of his dentures.tures.

The centuries roll on. And now comes an item over the cables to the effect that Hitler seldom goes to the dentist, for fear of being hurt. What's more, Herr Hitler's teeth are said to have more cavities than the Kentucky Caverns—and there's more poison pouring into his system than he can get out in a dozen two hour broadcasts. The result: unprecedented malevolence and violence!

Perhaps that's one of the (many) differences between the two men.

George Washington braved the dentist's chair, even when the village blacksmith handled the drill. He got the poison out of his system, even though he got an awful mouthful of cast iron molars in exchange. But Hitler the old sour puss, won't go to the dentist. He'd prefer to lose a million men in the English channel!

This time of the year the jelly and jam shelf looks like Mother Hubbard's cupboard. It is about time to do some thing about it. You could make some excellent marmalade with California dried fruit, and boy, oh boy, does it taste good! On piping hot biscuits, golden corn bread, or just spread between two slices of everyday bread. It makes a good filler upper for the youngsters and it starts father off for his day's work just right.

Here are two crackerjack receips using California fruits and California grown beet sugar.

GOLDEN MARMALADE

Two medium sized oranges; grated rind and juice of one lemon; 2½ cups water; 2 cups dried apricots; 3 cups California grown beet sugar.

Slice one unpeeled orange very thin. Squeeze juice from second orange. Add water to sliced orange and lemon rind and boil one hour. Rinse apricots and boil until tender in water to cover (about 45 minutes); beat to a pulp. Add sugar, cooked orange, orange juice, and lemon juice. Boil slowly until very thick, about one hour. Stir frequently to prevent scorching. Pour into hot glasses and when cool seal with paraffin. This is sufficient for 6 to 8 glasses.

FIG PEACH MARMALADE

One cup dried figs; 1 cup dried peaches; 2¼ cups water ½ cup shredded pineapple; 2 cups California grown beet sugar; 1/8 teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Boil peaches 15 minutes in water to cover; drain. Remove skin and chop peaches. Clip stems from figs and chop figs. Add 2¼ cups water to figs and peaches, and cook 15 minutes; add pineapple, California grown beet sugar salt and lemon juice, and cook and stir about 30 minutes. Pour in hot glasses. When cool, seal with paraffin. Makes about 4 small glasses.

SCHOOLS

By Comfort C. Taylor

Lakeside School has three new pupils. They are: James Raeves in the third grade, Reuben Millard in the sixth and Gene Larsen in the first grade. The school now has an enrollment of 277. Lakeside School is certainly growing by leaps and bounds.

Thursday of last week the school gave a Major Bowes Amateur Hour. Those who won prizes were: Barbara and Eddie Morton who gave a group of sound effects some third and fourth grade girls who danced a minuet, Charles Estrada who did a tap dance and baton twirling, and Ellen Wessel who sang 'Oh Johnny.'

The judges found it very hard to choose the winners as all the contestants did so well

Wesley, Ebert and Diuple Stephens entered our school Wednesday of this week, in the fifth, second and fourth grades respectively. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephen, who moved here from El Cajon and are occupying a house on the Thumb Cactus ranch. Mr. Stephen is employed at the Anderson Dairy.

Mrs. Nona Keen Duffy, County Supervisor of Writing, spent Tuesday in our school. She is writing a set of primary readers, and hopes to use some of her material in our class rooms.

Mr. Henry Worsham, assistant director of physical education on the federal program, has resigned to accept work in Reid's grocery. Mr. David Hetich is taking his place.

Conservation week begins March 7. The first day is Bird and Arbor Day. March 8 will be devoted to forests. March 9 to citizenship. March 10 to flowers and trees. March 11 to soil and water. March 12 to natural resources, soil and community. March 13 to wild life, birds fish, animals and shore life. Ending Friday, March 14, with community clean up and beautification.

Old Ranger's Greatest Seed Collection Now Ready!

For 1941, the Old Ranger is making the biggest offer he's ever presented! This year his collection contains six generous packets . . . with more than 8700 finest quality high-vitality seeds. This short description of the seed packets indicates their wonderful value and points out that unusual novelty blooms that grow in varieties of climate are included.

1. "America in Flowers" Collection. In this exclusive seed assortment are the nation's favorite flowers.
2. Giant, Double Carnation Flowered Poppies. The most spectacular Poppies grown! Flowers as big as saucers. They bloom in a wide color range.
3. Giant Zinnias. They're the absolute tops in size! Measure six inches across, and bloom in all popular colors.
4. Desert and Wild Flowers. The Old Ranger's 1941 edition of his famous assortment. Brings nature's choicest flowers to every garden. New varieties added.
5. Free Flowering Petunias. Special selection of balcony and bedding varieties. A mass of color for garden or window box.
6. Marigold, Desert Gold Shades. Real beauties — with gleaming, broad petals. Measure five inches across. Sunny shades of light and deep gold.

Many of these unusual collections are not obtainable from any other source. They're exclusively presented by the Old Ranger. His previous seed assortments have provided thousands with gardens of real beauty but the 1941 varieties greatly exceed in value and originality his former offers. A 20 Mule Team box top and a dime addressed to Old Ranger, Box 51, Los Angeles, California, brings you the six packet collection.

For British Roof Spotters

This elaborately equipped terrestrial telescope, powerful enough to spot enemy aircraft across the English Channel, was presented to the American Committee for Defense of British Homes by a friend of the late J. Kennedy Tod, New York banker, to whom it originally belonged. Mr. Tod was a native of Scotland. Having a four-inch objective, the telescope, which is now on its way to England for the use of British "spotters," will bring the occupied shores of France to the ocular equivalent of less than a half mile of the cliffs of Dover. Because of the value and uniqueness of the gift, the telescope was set up on the steps of City Hall in New York for the inspection of city officials. Above, Newbold Morris, President of the City Council, trains it on a distant skyscraper as C. Suydam Cutting (center), chairman of the American Committee for Defense of British Homes, and the Macneil of Barra, Scottish clan chief representing the British Government, look on.

The American Committee for Defense of British Homes, with headquarters at 10 Warren Street, New York, is asking for contributions of firearms, ammunition, and steel helmets for British civilians as well as for binoculars and stop-watches for those employed in watching for enemy aircraft.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

These verses from the Psalms "Thou art near, O Lord; and all thy commandments are truth. Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever," constitute the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

A Scriptural selection presents these words of Jesus from Luke: "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great."

Passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, state: "The best sermon ever preached is Truth practised and demonstrated by the destruction of sin, sickness, and death." "Our Master taught spirituality by similitudes and parables. As a divine student he unfolded God to man, illustrating and demonstrating Life and Truth in himself and by his power over the sick and sinning."

For some people a new money making scheme would be the old-fashioned way of earning it.

A woman will have her own way even if it is a roundabout way.
